

Merkel braves Delhi air, vows €1 bn for e-mobility

On a day public health emergency was declared in the Delhi-NCR region, German Chancellor Angela Merkel, who is on a two-day visit to the country, expressed desire to provide €1 billion to India for green urban mobility. The two nations signed a joint declaration on the matter after Prime Minister Narendra Modi met Merkel as part of the fifth Indo-German Inter-Governmental Consultations.

Merkel (65) remained seated when the national anthems were played during her ceremonial reception at the Rashtrapati Bhawan, after she was granted exemption due to her medical condition. Merkel's hectic itinerary in Delhi included many outdoor engagements — from the ceremonial welcome at the Rashtrapati Bhawan and paying homage to Mahatma Gandhi at Rajghat to her visit to Gandhi Smriti — leading to her braving the toxic air.

Though the Kashmir situation was not discussed during the consultations, sources said, Merkel expected to hear from Modi plans for J&K during their 'restricted meeting' held at the official residence of the PM in the presence of officials from both the sides. Before the meeting with Modi, Merkel told the German media: "As the situation at this moment (in Kashmir) is not sustainable and not good, this has to change for sure."

At the consultations, 17 agreements were signed, the external affairs ministry said. Five joint declarations of intent were exchanged too. Pitching for intensifying of trade ties, Merkel said, "Our economic relations have increased but it could be intensified even more. Make in India is an endeavour we have understood since India was the host country at the Hannover fair. We saw that you are serious about this goal."

The leaders agreed to deepen efforts to resume stalled negotiations for free-trade agreement between India and the European Union (EU). "Both sides confirmed the importance of a balanced free-trade agreement between India and the EU and agreed to deepen efforts to restart negotiations on the Bilateral Trade and Investment Agreement (BTIA)," a joint statement said.

The negotiations for the pact have been held up since May 2013 as both the sides failed to bridge substantial gaps on crucial issues. Launched in June 2007, the negotiations for the BTIA have witnessed many hurdles with both the sides having major differences on key issues like intellectual property rights, duty cut in auto and spirits, and liberal visa regime.

AROUND THE WORLD

First day on the job for ECB chief Lagarde

Christine Lagarde (pictured) took over Friday as president of the European Central Bank, replacing Italy's Mario Draghi, as the institution has been riven by a return to easy money policies to stoke inflation and ward off recession.

The former French finance minister and International Monetary Fund chief "has today taken up her duties as President of the European Central Bank," the Frankfurt institution said in a statement. After three male leaders since the bank opened its doors in 1998, Lagarde is the first woman to hold the president's seat. A former corporate lawyer, her path through politics and international organisations has been marked by crisis management, holding the French finance ministry from 2007-2011 and the IMF post from 2011-2019.

But she lacks the formal economics qualifications of former guardians of the single currency.

Lagarde takes office at a time when the ECB's governing council is divided as rarely before over its latest round of monetary stimulus.

From November 1, the institution will restart "quantitative easing" (QE) bond purchases of 20 billion euros (USD 22.3 billion) per month, on top of historic low interest rates and cheap loans to banks. Beyond the six executive board members and 19 eurozone central bank governors on the council, Lagarde is also under pressure to better communicate ECB policy with the wider public.

Germans in particular are grumbling at low interest rates' impact on their savings, with top-selling daily Bild depicting predecessor Draghi as "Count Draghila" saying he was draining accounts.

And as well as steering monetary policy, Lagarde told European lawmakers in September she wanted to dust off jargon-laden central bank communications and support female staff at the ECB and climate action.

Warren Buffett's underperformance splits investors

Berkshire Hathaway's rotation of investors over the past few months points to the question lingering over the conglomerate as it heads for its worst annual underperformance since 2009: Is it worth waiting for Warren Buffett to make a dent in his record $122 billion cash pile?

Ackman's stake in Berkshire, disclosed in August, is a bullish bet. His idea is simple: Growth at Berkshire's underlying businesses and the company's competitive position will boost earnings even if the funds aren't deployed. Rolfe, whose firm had been a Berkshire investor for decades, grew tired of waiting.

"He has missed this glorious bull market," said Rolfe, chief investment officer of Wedgwood Partners Inc. His company, which oversees $2.2 billion, trimmed its Berkshire stake in the second quarter and exited completely in the third. "The bullish thesis that this massive amount of cash is going to come to bear incredible fruit — hasn't."

Berkshire's third-quarter results, set to be released Saturday, should give investors a sense of how Buffett is handling the "Niagara" of cash generation in a period with no major acquisitions to ramp up growth.

Berkshire stock climbed 4.2 per cent through the end of October, short of the 21 per cent price gain in the S&P 500.

Apple requests tariff waivers on iPhone parts, watch and AirPods

Apple Inc is seeking exclusions from President Donald Trump's tariffs that went into effect September 1 on the Apple Watch, iMac, parts for the iPhone and other components imported from China. The company filed requests for exclusions from 15 per cent duties on 11 products or components Thursday, the first day US firms could seek relief from the tariffs on about $110 billion in Chinese imports. The iPhone maker had mixed results on its requests for exclusions from the previous round of duties.

Energy giants face 35% output cut to hit Paris climate goals: Watchdog

The biggest listed oil and gas giants must slash production by more than a third by 2040 to keep emissions within targets laid out in the landmark Paris climate deal, an industry watchdog said on Friday. Carbon Tracker, a Britain-based think tank, said that current rates of emissions from the energy majors would see the world's carbon budgets surpassed within decades due to an inexorable rise in oil and gas output. The 2015 Paris deal enjoins nations to limit temperature rises to "well below" two degrees Celsius (3.6 Fahrenheit) and to a safer cap of 1.5C if at all possible.

China's three major state-run telecom operators have unveiled their 5G network, as the country aims at becoming the global leader in next generation telecom technology surpassing the US and other western nations. The central government has bestowed on itself the authority to declare any area in the newly-created Union Territories of J&K, and Ladakh "disturbed" under the controversial AFSPA, which gives sweeping powers to security forces to act against any suspect.

Maha spares Lakshadweep, Kerala; Alerts withdrawn

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Kochi, 1 November

Lakshadweep islanders heaved a sigh of relief on Friday as the cyclonic storm 'Maha' spared the archipelago and moved across without touching land.

Lakshadweep MP Mohammed Faizal said the islands witnessed rough seas and heavy rains due to Cyclone Maha but no major damage was reported.

Some coconut trees were uprooted and a few houses and boats were damaged, but no major destruction had been reported, Faizal told PTI over phone.

The Met department had earlier forecast that Maha will cross the Lakshadweep and gale wind speed reaching 80-90 kmph gusting to 100 kmph was likely over northern parts of the islands area and adjoining southeast Arabian sea.

After moving across Lakshadweep, the cyclone lay centered on Friday morning about 450 km north-northwest of Aminidivi (Lakshadweep), it said.

The Kerala Disaster Management Authority said cyclone Maha was not a threat to Kerala anymore.

According to its weather update, the cyclonic system is currently moving in North West direction at a speed of 24 km per hour.

However, the warning given to fishermen against venturing into the sea still stood, the authority said adding all other rain related alerts have been withdrawn.

There was respite from rains in Kerala on Friday a day after several parts were battered by torrential showers with over 1,000 people being shifted to relief camps across the state.

Kerala's infra arm Pravasi Chitty adds pension, insurance frills

FE BUREAU
Thiruvananthapuram, Nov 1

THE KERALA GOVERNMENT- 'Sinfra fundraising instrument Kerala State Financial Enterprises Pravasi Chitty has added frills like pension and insurance to attract the savings of the state's 2.5 million Gulf diaspora. And, to add traction to the virtual chitty auctions of KSFE, the term Pravasi has been broadened beyond overseas Keralites to include those working outside the state.

"The state-run KSFE, with a turnover of ₹39,166 crore, had earmarked ₹450 crore as Pravasi Chitty outlay in its last four months of operations. This has ploughed up ₹62 crore investment in state's infrastructure corpus Kerala Infrastructure Investment Fund Board (KIIFB)," said Kerala finance minister T.M Thomas Isaac.

"Since the initial results are so positive, imagine how much can be generated for state's long-term capital needs, if the Pravasi Chitty outlay is scaled up to ₹10,000 crore," he said. The 24/7 digital platform makes it easy for an authorised participant to be active in Pravasi Chitty auctions from anywhere in the world. KSFE invests the Chitty fund proceeds in the KIIFB as bonds, which are listed on the LSE. This serves two purposes, one, it gives a safe and profitable investment option to NRIs and, two, it spawns resources for the state.
